

Contemporary Art Techniques and Performance Practices

- Local materials are used in contemporary arts
  - Helps enhance skills and talents in producing works of art
  - Gives pride and popularity

Materials Used by Contemporary Artists (BRPO)

- Bottles
- Rice stalks
- Plastic straw
- Other recyclable materials

THEY CREATE ARTWORKS FROM: (WWTRML)

- Wood
- Wire
- Thread
- Rattan
- Metal
- Leaves

Unique Artworks in Different Regions
"PAHIYAS" in Lucban, Quezon

- Lucban, Quezon is known for the "PAHIYAS" harvest festival
- One of the country's biggest and most colorful harvest festivals
- Celebrated every May 15th
- Other towns like Tayabas, Sariaya, Gumaca, and Tiaong also have harvest festivals

Multi-Colored Lanterns in San Fernando, Pampanga

- San Fernando, Pampanga is known for decorative multi-colored lanterns
- Example: Magnolia Fiberglass Lantern
  - 36 inches in diameter
  - 21 bulbs socket type
  - 4 winkers
  - 210 watts / 220 volts

Wood Carving in Paete, Laguna

- Paete, Laguna is known for wood carving
- Dying Art Forms
- Some art forms are dying because younger generations are not interested in learning about them
  - Example: Empty bottles as material for art making

Saniculas Cookie Mold Carvings in Pampanga

- Saniculas Cookies are arrowroot cookies with the image of St. Nicholas molded on them

- St. Nicholas is known as "The Healer" from illness
- Legend says that consuming these cookies when ill can lead to faster recovery
- The molds are exceptional pieces of folk art and rarity
- Saniculas cookie makers commission carvers for unique designs
- The molds are considered family heirlooms and made of hardwood

Pabalat or Pastillas Wrapper Cutting Art in Bulacan

- Pabalat or Pastillas wrapper cutting art is delicate and requires skilled hands
- The wrapper is made of delicate Japanese paper

Taka in Laguna

- Taka-making is not exclusive to the Philippines
- Paper mache and decoupage have been around for centuries
- Maria Bague is credited with creating the first recorded taka in the 1920s
- Wooden molds covered in strips of paper dipped in a sticky paste were used
- The takas were painted colorfully and presented as children's toys, but none survived a fire

Pagbuburda in Taal, Lumban, Laguna

- Pagbuburda is the tradition of embroidery in Taal, Lumban, Laguna
- Tela (fabric) is embroidered using a bastidor (embroidery frame)

Singkaban or Bamboo Art in Bulacan

- Singkaban is a celebratory art
- Singkaban craftsmen create bamboo arches for fiestas, weddings, and other community celebrations
- Inspired by the sense of "bayanihan" (community spirit)

Puni or Palm Leaf Folding in Bulacan

- Puni refers to the art of coconut leaf weaving
- Puni is a tagalog term from the province of Bulacan which means to beautify or decorate with the use of coconut leaves.
- Puni is used to create artful toys for kids, woven baskets, bags, and fans
- The most common form of Puni art is the "Palaspas" seen during Holy Week